GO F - YOURSELF

THE KID FROM BROOKLYN'S BOOK OF RANTS AND OTHER STUFF

Mike Caracciolo and Michael Benson

Based on the popular website www.TheKidFromBrooklyn.com, Go F-Yourself's humor follows the hugely successful and irreverent lead of the New York Times bestsellers I Hope They Serve Beer in Hell by Tucker Max and The Alphabet of Manliness by Maddox

Unedited, unapologetic, and politically incorrect, The Kid from Brooklyn's take-no-prisoner video rants on his wildly popular website, TheKidFromBrooklyn.com, inspired a devoted fan base to speak their mind openly, and shot the Kid into the stratosphere of pop culture stardom. Now, the Kid is back, and badder than ever, in Go F - Yourself, featuring 100% new material, none of which is available on TheKidFromBrooklyn.com.

With a huge built-in audience that keeps growing with every unabashed rant on hot-button topics from Starbucks to gas prices to Hugo Chavez, Go F - Yourself is sure to get people talking, though with a few more bleeps, and a lot less B.S. than ever before.

- The Kid's most popular video, "Starbucks", was chosen as one of the top fifty best online videos by VH1's Webjunk.com
- TheKidFromBrooklyn.com receives about 13,000 unique visitors per day and over 390,000 per month; the website receives almost 2 million page views a month

SCOTT FISCHER, MOUNT EVEREST, AND A LIFE LIVED ON HIGH

Robert Birkby

The inspiring life of Scott Fischer—one of the Mt. Everest climbers featured in Jon Krakauer's bestselling Into Thin Air—by close friend, fellow climber, and author of the definitive outdoorsman's guide, Lightly On Land, Robert Birkby

Scott Fischer, world-class mountain climber and cofounder of the outfitter Mountain Madness, led one of the tragic Mt. Combining Birkby's personal anecdotes with those of Scott Fischer's friends, parents, family, and wife, Mountain Madness documents the exciting, touching, and largely untold story of one of the most fascinating mountain climbers of the modern era. Courageous and seemingly carefree, Scott tested and routinely transcended the boundaries of human will. Mountain Madness is a testament to this inspired man's remarkable influence on his family, friends, clients, and on whole generations of outdoor adventurers.

MAN: THE BOOK

Clay Travis and The Deadly Hippos

In the bestselling tradition of fratire favorites Real Ultimate Power, I Hope They Serve Beer in Hell and The Alphabet of Manliness, Man: The Book is an irreverent manifesto and a humorous call to action for “real” men

From the riotous satirists at DeadlyHippos.com—an up-and-coming humor site for young men—comes a hilarious new guide for all the men trapped in the metrosexual morass of the 21st Century.

Some hard-and-fast rules from Man: The Book include:

- If something happens to the pilot, you must land the plane.
- If it gets you into bed with a girl, it isn't a lie.
- Men who aren't diehard fans of at least one NFL team should be looked upon with scorn and suspicion.

Capturing the spirit of Miller Lite's popular “Man Laws” advertising campaign, Man: The Book is a witty and irreverent collection of the rules and previously unwritten codes that real men should live by, as documented by the guys at DeadlyHippos.com.

- The self-published edition of Man: The Book had a promising sales start, sold only through DeadlyHippos.com and Amazon.com; our edition will be expanded and packaged with Rebel Base Books' distinctive edge. The self-published original, entitled Manquette, was withdrawn eight months prior to publication of this edition.
- DeadlyHippos.com is an up-and-coming humor site for young men (about 400,000 unique visitors, with an e-mail list of several thousand and growing)
- There is separate site exclusively devoted to the book, www.manquette.com

CLAY TRAVIS was born and raised in Nashville, Tennessee. He is a graduate of George Washington University and Vanderbilt Law School. Clay's first book, Dixieland Delight—documenting his quest as a diehard football fan to tour the Southeastern Conference football stadiums—was published in August 2007 by HarperCollins. Clay is also a popular columnist for CBS Sportsline. He and his wife reside in Nashville, Tennessee where he is a practicing attorney.

THE DEADLY HIPPOS are Clay Travis, Chris Shaw, DJ Harrison, Josh Townsend, Kwo, The 27, and Hunter McCrary. These seven men, from racially, ethnically, and religiously diverse backgrounds, and hailing from all corners of the United States, make their living as lawyers, research scientists, professional basketball players, and former collegiate three-point specialists who now sell Subaru. NEVER SUCK A DEAD MAN'S HAND

CURIOUS ADVENTURES OF A CSI

Dana Kollmann

A unique personal perspective on forensic science, written by an expert who worked as a crime scene investigator for over ten years—the real science behind forensic fiction, presented in a darkly humorous voice reminiscent of Mary Roach in her national bestseller Stiff

With plenty of insider's insight—and without pulling any punches—Dana Kollmann introduces the real science and the actual process of crime scene investigation as she recounts her life as a CSI in all its fascinating and gritty detail. Whether explaining rigor mortis or insect infestation rates, speeding to an accident scene or cautiously entering a crime scene, she shows what it's really like to work on the front lines as a forensic expert.

With an eye for detail, and a frank and witty voice, Kollman brings readers across the crime-scene tape, and shows them a world most civilians never knew existed—letting them see and smell the bodies, hear the bugs, and walk through dozens of crime scenes. Never Suck a Dead Man's Hand will offer a perspective as informative as it is irreverent, and is the first real look at the day-to-day life of a crime scene investigator.

- Will appeal to fans of CSI, Law and Order, and Bones, as well as fans of Patricia Cornwell and Linda Fairstein novels, and other forensic fiction and forensic memoirs
- The author has excellent credentials as a crime scene investigator, forensic anthropologist, teacher of forensic science, and consultant
- The continued popularity of fact-based forensic shows such as Cold Case Files, New Detectives, Forensic Files, FBI Files, Autopsy, Body of Evidence, and I Detective ensure that this book has a broad and interested audience

"Fans of CSI and Court TV, your book has arrived."—Publishers Weekly

"Informative, witty...Kollmann delivers terse commentary and gory detail while puncturing common misconceptions about forensics."—Booklist

DANA KOLLMANN has eleven years of experience working in a crime lab with the Arlington County (Virginia) and Baltimore County (Maryland) police departments. TOURNAMENT HOLD'EM HAND BY HAND

THE STEP-BY-STEP GUIDE TO THE FINAL TABLE

Neil D. Myers

The quick-and-easy, hand-by-hand guide to tournament Hold'em poker from one of poker's leading authorities

“What the Rosetta Stone did for hieroglyphics, Neil Myers does for poker.”

—John Vorhaus

Most books on tournament Hold'em poker assume that the reader is playing in a big tournament circuit where buy-ins may be $10,000 or higher. Now, building on the theoretical fundamentals addressed in Limit Hold'em Hand by Hand and No-Limit Hold'em Hand by Hand, Neil Myers focuses on the types of tournaments that most players really play—the small to mid-size tournaments that are offered in casinos and card rooms across the country and, of course, on Internet poker sites.

Using a format of quick, to-the-point lessons, illustrations, and an instructional DVD, Tournament Hold'em Hand by Hand offers detailed, yet easy-to-read examples, exercises, and analysis to help players overcome the special difficulties of tournament play, including:

- How to win despite a run of bad cards
- How to assess good-value tournaments and avoid bad ones
- How to play when you are short-stacked, and more

Savvy players know that small tournaments can be fun and profitable if they know how to play them. With Tournament Hold'em Hand by Hand players can quickly learn winning strategies for tournament play.

- Illustrated throughout: Myers uses images of poker hands to show players how to handle different situations
- Interactive: Offers numerous situations and exercises covering a wide range of specific hands
- Includes instructional DVD: Divided into numerous short chapters, the accompanying DVD provides quick but valuable poker lessons

NEIL D. MYERS is the author of No-Limit Hold'em Hand by Hand, Limit Hold'em Hand by Hand, Quick and Easy Texas Hold'em, and a self-made poker player. He honed his skills in private poker clubs and Atlantic City's casinos. When he is not playing poker, Neil is a sales and marketing consultant. Visit Neil's website, www.holdempokernow.com. WHAT REALLY SANK THE TITANIC

NEW FORENSIC DISCOVERIES

Jennifer Hooper McCarty and Tim Foecke

In this fascinating new book, unlike any other on the Titanic, cutting-edge science is used to solve one of history's greatest mysteries and explore one of its most haunting tragedies

With the same methodology used by forensic scientists in crime scene investigations, researchers Jennifer Hooper McCarty and Tim Foecke applied new tools to a century-old mystery. By analyzing step-by-step how Titanic was designed and constructed, what vulnerabilities were overlooked, and how this marvel of modern engineering may have been a disaster waiting to happen, they build a compelling new scenario with shattering impact.

A dramatic and grippingly written account, What Really Sank the Titanic is illustrated with fascinating period photographs and modern scientific evidence. In an age when forensics can catch killers, this book does what no other book has before: fingers the culprit in one of the greatest tragedies ever.

- Includes little-known Titanic facts and lore, colorful portraits of the key players among the ship's designers, builders, and crew, eyewitness accounts, and a dramatic timeline of the ship's last hours
- Perfectly timed to tie into the 96th anniversary of the sinking, and the publicity surrounding the 10th anniversary of the Academy Award winning film Titanic (Leonardo DiCaprio, Kate Winslet)
- What Really Sank The Titanic is the only book to present the authors' unique and original expert research and findings
- Jennifer Hooper McCarty and Tim Foecke have appeared on Discovery Channel, Discovery Science Channel, National Geographic Channel, CBS News, and ABC's World News Tonight
- What Really Sank The Titanic includes 16 pages of fascinating color photographs

JENNIFER HOOPER MCCARTY completed her master's and doctoral degrees in Materials Science and Engineering at Johns Hopkins University, specializing in the characterization of historic materials. Her dissertation formed the first complete analysis of the metallurgy of the Titanic rivets. Following her graduate research at both the Smithsonian Institution and the National Institute of Standards and Technology, she worked as a researcher at Oxford University. She lives in Portland, Oregon.

TIM FOECKE earned his Ph.D. in Materials Science from the University of Minnesota, specializing in fracture of metals. Since 1991, he has been a staff materials scientist at the National Institute of Standards and Technology in Gaithersburg, Maryland, and since 2001 has also been an adjunct professor at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore. He has performed failure analysis and forensic studies on the Titanic, USS Arizona, CSS Hunley, and the World Trade Center collapse, among other disasters. He resides in

MY LIFE AT FULL THROTTLE

Richard "Deadeye" Hayes with Mary Gardner

Outrageous, outlandish, and over-the-top tales of life on the hog from a legendary outlaw biker who's been there, done that, and has the scars (and the tattoos) to prove it

Outlaw Biker is the true-life, bad-ass, balls-to-the-wall story of Richard "Deadeye" Hayes—a member, and eventually president, of the infamous Los Valientes Motorcycle Club. Between riding, drug dealing, and sending men to the hospital with his bare hands, Deadeye made himself a legend among bikers—all the while making sure his daughters never got mixed up with guys like him.

Now, in his own words, Deadeye tells it all. From stealing a machine gun before he was seven, to losing his left eye when a good friend shot him in the face; from earning his colors with an outlaw motorcycle club, to a lifetime of drugs, sex, violence, and crime; this is his story: true-to-life and full-throttle all the way.

- Includes eight pages of black-and-white photographs from Deadeye's personal collection
- Will appeal to hard-core bikers and those who wish they were, including fans of Under and Alone, and New York Times bestsellers The Alphabet of Manliness and I Hope They Serve Beer in Hell

Outlaw Biker is a unique, larger-than-life story—one which has never been told, but which will have broad appeal to anyone who has ever been in awe (or in fear) of the motorcycle gang image in all its tattooed glory.

RICHARD "DEADEYE" HAYES grew up in St. Paul, Minnesota, and learned at an early age that the confines of school and authority bored him. To alleviate this minor problem, he created much larger ones such as bar fights, gunfights, knife fights, fistfights, drugs, drug dealers, drug dealing, and dealing in stolen goods. It is an understatement to say that Deadeye enjoys adventure and values a sense of humor. He currently serves as president of the Los Valientes Motorcycle Club. He lives in South St. Paul, Minnesota.

MARY GARDNER is the author of Salvation Run, Boat People, and two other novels. A former Woodrow Wilson Fellow with a master's degree in English from the University of Chicago, she teaches at the Loft, a community writing center in Minneapolis. Her shorter work has been published in The New York Times, Minneapolis Star-Tribune, Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, and Friends Journal. She lives in Minnesota.

ROCK STAR MOMMY

MY LIFE AS A ROCKER MOM

Judy Davids

This true story of motherhood, music, and following one's wildest dreams is a hilarious and heartwarming dose of inspiration for moms who want to rock more than just the cradle!

When suburban mother of two Judy Davids picked up a guitar and conspired with the neighborhood moms to form an all-mom rock band, she never imagined it would actually happen. But within weeks, The Mydols were born.

Rock Star Mommy chronicles Davids's experiences as a music fan, a mother, and the leader of The Mydols (one of the first "mommy" rock bands in the country); and tells the story behind the band's creation, its path to success, and the inspiration it gave to Judy—and so many other moms—to embrace their creativity and live their dreams.

With gentle humor and biting wit, Davids explores themes of music, creativity, and motherhood—and where the three overlap. Packed with fun anecdotes from Judy's experiences—such as dying her hair pink, and tricking her husband into buying a thousand-dollar drum kit—Rock Star Mommy features entertaining sidebars such as "Signs You're Ready to Rock," "Mommy Rock Lingo," and "Out of the Mouths of Moms" (wise and wisecracking quotes from moms who rock).

Engaging fun interwoven with poignant observations, Rock Star Mommy is a rallying cry for any woman wants to pursue her dreams and be a mom at the same time.

- The Mydols have appeared on The Today Show, CBS Sunday Morning, The Late Late Night Show with Craig Kilborn, The Greg Behrendt Show, and Inside Edition; and they have also been featured in People Magazine (3-page spread in 2006), The Wall Street Journal, USA Today, The Washington Post, The New York Daily News, The London Times, Making Music, Inside Sports, and Sports Illustrated
- Judy Davids was a 2005/2006 spokeswoman for Dodge Grand Caravan and is currently negotiating for 2008; she is also the spokeswoman for Daisy Rock Guitars
- The Mydols have appeared in over 100 podcasts including Mommy Cast, The Rockin' Mom Podcast, The Hot Moms Club, and Chick Chat

JUDY DAVIDS was a suburban soccer mom with rock 'n' roll dreams when she picked up a guitar and decided to start a mom rock band. Soon after, The Mydols were born. She lives in Royal Oak, Michigan, with her husband and sons. Visit her website at www.mydols.com.

COLD NOSES AT THE PEARLY GATES

A BOOK OF HOPE FOR THOSE WHO HAVE LOST A PET

Gary Kurz

The first of its kind, a heart-warming and touching guide for grieving pet owners dealing with the loss of their pet

The death of a beloved pet is often one of the most heartbreaking losses a pet lover can endure. But recovery isn't only about closure; pet lovers have the same questions as when they've lost a human loved one—after death, where has their pet gone?

After the intense, unexpected grief he experienced following the loss of his own companions, animal lover and biblical scholar Gary Kurz set out to prove that there are indeed pets in heaven. Now he shares his inspiring insights to bring readers a richer understanding of animals and their souls; and to answer common questions about animals and the afterlife.

- Includes a 30-day devotional to help readers work through their grief

For anyone who has ever loved and lost a pet, this amazing book reassures that love and loyalty are truly eternal, and that someday, they will be reunited with their pets.

- Author Gary Kurz originally self-published Cold Noses at the Pearly Gates in 1999. He has sold, to date, 32,000 copies through his website, www.coldnosesbook.com
- Gary Kurz will aggressively promote the Citadel edition of Cold Noses at the Pearly Gates on his website
- This book has huge backlist potential as in 2004, over 63% of U.S. households were dog-owners, and over 34% owned a cat

“For those of us who love our pets so passionately, Gary Kurz thoughtfully gives hope that death is not the end for our furry, scaled, and feathered friends.”

—Francine Hornberger, co-author of So You Think You Know about Cats?

GARY KURZ is a retired Coast Guard officer who served his country faithfully and honorably for over 30 years. He and his wife have a love for animals, and a concern for others who share their love. He lives in Manhattan, Kansas (near Kansas City). Visit his website at www.coldnosesbook.com.

HENRY HUDSON: DREAMS AND OBSESSION

THE TRAGIC LEGACY OF THE NEW WORLD'S LEAST UNDERSTOOD EXPLORER

Corey Sandler

Finally, the true story behind legendary explorer Henry Hudson—his success, his failures, and his ultimate demise

Henry Hudson: Dreams and Obsession is the definitive, yet nearly forgotten, story of explorer Henry Hudson's search for the Northwest Passage in the year 1610, based on the journals and logbooks of Hudson and members of his crew.

The most comprehensive book to date on the life and legacy of explorer Henry Hudson, Henry Hudson: Dreams and Obsession was painstakingly researched by author Corey Sandler, who meticulously retraced the sea routes traveled by Hudson, even journeying deep into Canadian wilderness areas accessible only by boat.

Henry Hudson: Dreams and Obsession answers the questions that have puzzled historians for more than three centuries: was Henry Hudson a great success, or a colossal failure for not finding the Northwest Passage? How did he survive four voyages and three mutinies? Was he secretly spying for the British while sailing for the Dutch? All this and more in one of the most fascinating stories never told.

- Corey Sandler has created www.hudsondreams.com which promotes the book and provides links to online booksellers
- Henry Hudson: Dreams and Obsessions* is the most comprehensive book to date on the life and legacy of explorer Henry Hudson
- In researching and writing this book, author Corey Sandler painstakingly retraced the sea routes traveled by Hudson, north on the river that bears his name, up the St. Lawrence Seaway and into what is now the Hudson Strait and Hudson Bay, a trek that took the author nine weeks
- Henry Hudson: Dreams and Obsessions* does for Henry Hudson what bestseller Undaunted Courage (Stephen Ambrose) did for Lewis and Clark, proving that there is a huge audience for books about explorers

"A quirky and satisfying blend of history, reporting, and travel writing."

—Publishers Weekly

COREY SANDLER is a historian and experienced travel writer who has written more than 50 EconoGuide travel books for Globe Pequot Press, with more than 200,000 copies in print. He has appeared on NBC's The Today Show. He lives in Nantucket, Massachusetts.
